

JEB BUSH
GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA

November 29, 2006

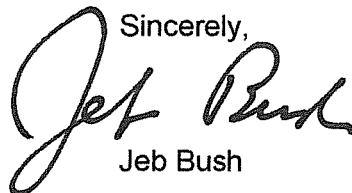

Dear Friends:

It is my pleasure to welcome all attending the South Asian Students' Alliance's 19th Annual Conference in Miami, Florida.

I understand this conference serves as a forum for individuals to share ideas and experiences from others who have attained academic and financial success. Combining educational seminars with a highly competitive cultural competition, South Asian Students' Alliance creates an educational yet entertaining environment.

Your visit provides us an opportunity to showcase Florida, our genial workforce and residents. The Sunshine State continues to be one of the most popular destinations in the United States with our excellent facilities, numerous attractions, and varied outdoor activities. Our abundant natural resources and scenic beauty are yours to enjoy.

Best wishes for a successful and educational conference.

Sincerely,

Jeb Bush
